Soubsubor called on the Ceylons line 11 June '59 at 1630 hrs. He wanted [redacted]. Undersigned told him [redacted] was on a well earned vacation and was not expected back for several weeks.

Guf (after writing to [redacted] he would be here in July and needed no help from us) contacted Soub seeking assistance to get the time off. Soub was calling to see if we had any objections to a Sh friend of his writing an excuse for Guf to get off from work. I asked if the Sh friend wasn't a suspect should something go wrong. I was informed that in this business we can't always be legitimate. I ~~offered~~ said I could write to Guf and offer to write a letter to his employer but Soub say Guf doesn't want the letter from us. I told Soub we had no objections to this ~~[redacted]~~ caper
